Identify ideas for choreography generated from a variety of stimuli (e.g., notation, emotions, observed dance, personal experiences).	1. Build content for choreography using several stimuli (e.g., literary forms, natural phenomena, current news, social events).	1. Relate similar or contrasting ideas to develop choreography using a variety of stimuli.	1. Compare a variety of stimuli and make selections to expand movement vocabulary and artistic expression.	1. Implement movement from a variety of stimuli to develop dance content for an original dance.	1. Explore a variety of stimuli for sourcing movement to develop an improvisational or choreographed dance study. 2. Analyze the process and the relationship between the stimuli and the movement.	1. Collaborate with others to share creative sources and ideas for choreography designed to communicate artistic intent.	1. Experiment and take risks to discover a personal voice to communicate artistic intent.

DANCE - Creating 2

Anchor Standard 2: Organize and develop artistic ideas and work. Enduring Understanding(s): The elements of movement, structural dance forms, and the conventions of dance serve as both a foundation and departure point for choreographers. Meaningful choices and influences by personal, aesthetic, and cultural criteria give dance works form, structure, style, content, context, and purpose. Essential Question(s): How do choreographers use structure and choices to create meaningful and aesthetic choreography?

Planning	1. Improve movement that starts and stops on cue and expresses an idea.	1. Improve movement that has a beginning, middle, and end and expresses an idea.	1. Create a series of movements with a beginning, middle, and end.	1. Create a dance phrase with a clear beginning, middle, and end that has a main idea.	1. Create a simple movement combination using other dance structures (e.g., AB, ABA, theme and variation, repetition) that may express an idea or feeling.	1. In a group, use movement concepts (e.g., change level, direction, timing, relationships) to vary a movement combination.	1. In a group, develop a dance combination by selecting specific movement vocabulary to communicate a main idea.	1. In a group, use different dance structures and movement concepts to vary a dance combination.	1. Individually or in a group, create and vary a dance combination that communicates an artistic intent and evaluate why some movements are more or less effective than others.	1. Individually or in a group, create a complete dance that communicates personal or cultural meaning.	1. Work collaboratively using a variety of choreographic structures to develop a dance that communicates personal, social, or cultural intent.	1. Work independently using a variety of choreographic structures to create a dance that communicates personal, social, or cultural artistic intent.	1. Demonstrate fluency and personal voice in designing and choreographing an original dance.
			2. Draw a picture of the movement.	2. Draw a map or picture of the dance.		2. Discuss the effect of the movement choices.	2. Document the dance and explain reasons for movement choices.		2. Document the dance.	2. Document the dance and discuss how the dance communicates non-verbally.		2. Document the dance.	2. Document the dance and analyze how the structure and final composition informs the meaning of the dance.

Revising	1. Respond to suggestions for changing movement through guided improvisational experiences.	1. Apply suggestions for changing movement through guided improvisational experiences.	1. Explore suggestions to change movement within short remembered sequences.	1. Make choices to change movement from guided improvisation and/or short remembered sequences.	1. Revise movement choices in response to feedback to improve a short dance combination.	1. Revise movement choices based on peer feedback and self-reflection to improve a short dance combination.	1. Refine movements based on peer feedback and self-reflection to clarify communication of an idea within a dance combination.	1. Revise dance compositions using collaboratively developed artistic criteria.	1. Evaluate possible revisions of a dance composition based on feedback.	1. Revise choreography collaboratively or independently based on artistic criteria, self-reflection, and feedback of others.	1. Working collaboratively, revise a dance according to self-reflection and feedback from others.	1. Working independently, revise a dance according to self-reflection and feedback from others.	1. Clarify the artistic intent of one's own choreography by manipulating and refining choreographic devices and dance structures using self-reflection and feedback from others.
					2. Describe the differences the changes made in the movements.	2. Explain choices made in the process.	2. Record changes made through writing, drawings, or media technology.		2. Explain how they may clarify artistic intent.	2. Articulate the reasons for choices.	2. Justify choices made in the revision process verbally and in writing.	2. Analyze and evaluate impact of choices made in the revision process verbally and in writing.	2. Document choices made in the revision process and justify how the refinements support artistic intent.

Expressing	1. Move with opposing characteristics of speed (e.g., fast and slow), energy (e.g., sharp and smooth), and weight (e.g., heavy and light).		1. Match movement to musical tempo and apply different qualities to movement.		1. Recognize steady beat and move to beats at varying speeds.		1. Identify the length of time (duration) a move or phrase takes (e.g., whether it is long or short).		1. Fill specified duration of time with movement and differentiate between "in time" and "out of time" to music.		1. Accompany other dancers using a variety of percussive instruments and sounds. Respond in movement to even and uneven rhythms. Recognize and respond in movement to tempo changes as they occur in dance and music.		1. Dance to a variety of rhythms.		1. Accurately use accented and unaccented beats in different meters.		1. Compare and contrast movement characteristics from a variety of dance styles.		1. Use different tempos in different body parts at the same time.		1. Use expressive elements (e.g. musicality, effort, dynamic, stylistic nuance) to communicate artistic intent through the performance of dance in one or more dance style.		1. Synthesize all expressive movement elements and "dance in the moment" to convey emotional meaning with and without musical accompaniment.		1. Modulate expressive movement elements to varying levels of complexity. Work with and against rhythm of accompaniment or sound environments.
					2. Demonstrate movement that interprets descriptive words (e.g., use adverbs and adjectives that apply to movement such as a bouncy leap, a floppy fall, a jolly jump, and a joyful spin).		2. Choose and demonstrate movement qualities appropriate to different music selections and movement contexts.		2. Change use of energy and dynamics by modifying movements and applying specific characteristics to heighten the effect of their intent.		2. Analyze movements and phrases for use of energy and dynamic changes.		2. Contrast bound and free-flowing movements.		2. Vary muscular tension to represent different emotions and meanings as it applies to one or more dance styles.		2. Determine what dancers must do to perform them clearly.								2. Use energy and dynamics to enhance and project movements.
